

TERMS OF REFERENCE
STRATEGIC PLANNING COMMITTEE OF FEZANA

Whereas Member associations are deeply involved in the day to day functioning of their Associations and their committees the overall direction for the Zarthusti community within the North American context as well as globally, needs to be kept in sight and constantly reviewed.

This Committee of FEZANA is established to chart the future direction of the Zarthustrian community in the North American context and globally.

OBTECTS

Ensure that the Mission of FEZANA is always in sight. Recommend appropriate course corrections when necessary, review and refine the Mission statement constantly in light of prevalent environment and the mood of the community and recommend appropriate alterations.

Make available a short term and long term plan to implement the Mission which should be reviewed annually by the Members at each AGM.

To develop a blue print for the future of the community based on the Mission

To study the critical religious and social issues facing the community in North America (e.g. the definition of a Zarthusti, adoption of children not born of Zarthusti parents, acceptance of children of a non—Zarthusti spouse, etc)

To develop guidelines and mechanisms for acceptance of the reality of the North American situation with its accompanying social and legal implications.

To develop guidelines and standards, after discussion with the two mobed councils, for the level of knowledge and steps to follow before a child or spouse can be accepted as a Zarthtisti.

OPERATION

The Vice -President shall be the Chair of the Strategic Planning Process. S/he shall consult widely with members of the community and if deemed necessary hold workshop on specific topics

A report to be presented to the AGM each year.
